

Volleyball Phobias

We all have fears. Joe "the Truth" Harmon has done much research in this area with the President's Commission on Psycho-Social Tendencies in Volleyball, Lacrosse and Supreme Court Judge Hobbies (PCPTVLSCJH). He has recently published these common phobias:

I-go phobia -- Fear of calling the ball.

Victo-Duo Phobia -- Inexplicable fear of winning by two.

Flipophobia -- Uncontrollable anxiety when asked to call the toss.

Jamimaphobia -- The absurd fear of pancakes.

Wagaphobia -- Intense uneasiness in the presence of USAV Commissioner Lea Wagner.

Black n' Deckaphobia -- Nightmarish fear of being tooled.

Bellphobia -- Horror and dismay experienced as he reaches for the yellow... again.

Whattheheckophobia -- New player's terror when learning how to switch in a game.

Rotophobia -- Irrational fear of rotating.

Please send any other research on volleyball phobias to mvp@usav.org