

GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT THE CIDP COACHING PROGRAMS

(Please visit the Coach Identification and Development Program link for more specific details)

TYPE	DOES THE SEMINAR HAVE A RENEWAL REQUIREMENT?	WHO CAN YOU COACH?	HOW DO YOU REGISTER FOR THE SEMINAR?	WHERE IS THE SEMINAR OFFERED?	NOTES
COACHES' EDGE SEMINAR	Yes. Annual renewal is required each year that the coach is interested in obtaining a coach's pass for a USAT event.	Not applicable, however, is needed to obtain a coaching credential at a USAT event.	Online: $50.00 On site: $75.00	At the event, usually at the venue where the competition is taking place or at the host hotel.	Avoid the late fee by registering online.
ASSOCIATE COACH COURSE	No. One-time certification. It is enduring once the certification is acquired.	Any division except the 14-17 World Class Black Belt division at the Junior Olympic Nationals and the 18-32 (Senior) World Class Black Belt division.	Online: $50.00 On site: $75.00	The AC Course is available online, all the time! Strongly encouraged to register online for the coaches' convenience.	Have to mail in the AC Quiz if registering on site.
LEVEL 1 SEMINAR	No. One-time certification. It is enduring once the certification is acquired.	Any division at any USA Taekwondo event.	Online: $300.00 On site: $350.00	Once at the Junior Olympics and once at the Senior Nationals, usually at the venue where the competition is taking place or at the host hotel.	Coaches will receive $50.00 credit if they took the Coaches' Edge seminar in the same year that they have registered for the Level 1.
LEVEL 2 SEMINAR	No. One-time certification. It is enduring once the certification is acquired.	Any division at any USA Taekwondo event.	By mail or fax: $400	U.S. Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, however, the location may be subject to change.	Coaches will receive $50.00 credit if they took the Coaches' Edge seminar in the same year that they have registered for the Level 2 as long as they did not apply the credit toward Level 1.